

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

St. John 20:19-23

Today the Church celebrates the fiftieth day of the resurrection of Our Lord. It is because this is the fiftieth day that the Church calls this solemnity "Pentecost,"; a Greek word meaning fifty days. Ten days after Our Lord ascended to heaven, the Holy Spirit descended to earth and was bestowed on the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Apostles.

Just as in the book of Genesis, when God breathed his breath into Adam and gave mankind life, so with the breath of the Holy Spirit, the Church is founded and given life. Without the Holy Spirit, the Church would be reduced to merely a human organisation, weighed down by its own structures. But, for its part, in the plans of God, the Holy Spirit habitually makes use of human mediations to act in history. Precisely for this, Our Lord, who established the Church on the foundation of the Apostles closely around St. Peter, has also given it the gift of the Holy Spirit, so that throughout the centuries he would be the comfort (see Jn. 14: 16) and the guide to the entire truth (see Jn. 16: 13).

At the Last Supper, on the night before Our Lord's passion and death, he instituted the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and the Priesthood that would offer that sacrifice. Here, at Pentecost, the Holy Spirit fulfils the institution of the Church and gives to her the power to participate in the fulfillment of the mission of Christ who said, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Mt. 28:19).

This mission of the Church is our duty because we, by virtue of our Baptism and Confirmation, were drawn into the Church and received the Holy Spirit. We are not members of the Church in order to impose our own will or to decide what is truth and what is not. We are members of the Church because we see in her the fullness of truth.

Just as, again, at the Last Supper, Our Lord gave us an example of perfect service in the washing of the feet of the Apostles, so we, who are his disciples, seek to fulfill that duty of service to almighty God through His Church. To this end, we are obligated to fulfill the five precepts of the Church: to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation, to confess our sins at least once a year, to humbly receive Holy Communion at least during the Easter season, to keep holy the holy days of obligation, and to observe the prescribed days of fasting and abstinence. With these five precepts, we are also obligated to provide for the financial and material needs of the Church, according to our abilities.

To each of us, God, who has made us in his image and likeness, has granted particular skills, abilities and resources. It is our duty to make use of what Our Lord has given to us, not only for our salvation but for the salvation of others, because in this way we give glory to God by the fulfilling of our humanity. One way in which we are asked to do this is by our service to the Church through the parish. By our volunteering to assist in the parish we contribute to the building up of the Church as asked of us by Christ, and we make a sacrifice of ourselves and so share in the sacrifice of Christ.

This weekend, we hold our annual volunteer drive, asking parishioners to join us and to participate in the life of the parish by acts of service; whether it be serving at the altar, or reading at Mass, or by cleaning the church, or by teaching children the faith either with children's liturgy or as a catechist in public schools, or by offering regular donations to the parish through the second collection and the planned giving programme. In each of these ways, we answer the call of Our Lord to participate in the mission of the Church, because by each of us offering what we are able, those parts form a whole under the grace of the Holy Spirit.

By the doors of the church you will find volunteer drive forms. We are asking everyone to consider how you might offer service to the parish and to complete one of these forms. On the back of the form you will find important notes regarding the various ministries which will be of help to you in choosing how you are able to participate.

As we celebrate the solemnity of Pentecost and the birth of the Church, we entrust our hope to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, and we pray that by her intercession she will guide us and strengthen us in our service to the Church so that, like her, we may stand by the foot of the Holy Cross and give witness to the world.
